APPENDIX: In addition to the rights stated above the author shall retain the following rights:

(a) The right, after publication by IW3C2 and ACM, to use all or part of the Article and abstract, without revision or modification, in personal compilations or other publications of the author's own works, and to make copies of all or part of such materials for the author's use for lecture or classroom purposes (excluding the preparation of course pack material for onward sale by libraries and institutions), provided that the first page of such use or copy prominently displays the bibliographic data and the following copyright notice: '© [year] International World Wide Web Conference Committee.'

(b) Prior to publication, the author may share with colleagues print or electronic 'preprints' of the unpublished Article, in form and content as accepted by IW3C2. Such preprints may be posted as electronic files on the author's own website for personal or professional use, or on the author's internal university, college or corporate networks/intranet, or on a website of the author's institution, but not for commercial sale or for any systematic external distribution by a third party (e.g. a list-server or database connected to a public access server). Prior to publication, the author must include the following notice on the preprint. 'This is a preprint of an Article accepted for publication in [ACM Publication Title] © [year] International World Wide Web Conference Committee'.

(c) After publication of the Work by ACM and IW3C2, the preprint notice shall be amended to read as follows: 'This is an electronic version of an Article published in [include the complete citation information for the final version of the Work as published in the print edition of the Proceedings] © [year] International World Wide Web Conference Committee'. The author has the right to update or replace the preprint with the published version of the Work, provided that the same notice is included. The author also retains (i) the rights to reproduce, to distribute, and to publicly display the Article in any medium for non-commercial purposes; (ii) the right to prepare derivative works from the Article; and (iii) the right to authorize others to make any non-commercial use of the Article so long as the notice defined above is used. For example, the author may make and distribute copies in the course of teaching and research and may post the Article on personal or institutional Web sites and in other open-access digital repositories.

Applicable Law
